In Loving Memory

Last week, we lost one of our beloved members, Ann Staberg.

She was an Air Force veteran serving in Texas and Hawaii before moving to Seattle, WA. She worked at UW hospital and Seattle Children's Hospital. She and her husband, Larry, were married for 40 years. Ann spent her free time volunteering at the Bellevue Botanical Gardens, playing golf, skiing and playing tennis here at Edgebrook.

In her years here at the club, Ann was active in flights, Cups and USTA teams and social events. If you have ever seen the small bouquet of flowers at the front desk when you check in - those were always hand picked by Ann. She was a beautiful personality and her friends at the club will miss her dearly.

Ann is survived by her loving husband of 40 years, Larry Staberg, daughter Cathy (Stephen) Cornett, grandchildren Mitchell, Thomas, and Nikita, brothers Michael (Nadia) Gudsolak, Walter (Francine) Gudsolak, nieces, nephews and family in Ukraine.

Edgebrook members will be planting a flowering bush in Ann's honor on the Edgebrook property. A memorial service for Ann will be held in late spring in Bellevue. In lieu of sending flowers, please make a donation in her memory to Seattle Children's Hospital or Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research.
